

Temple Sinai of Roslyn

Calendar of Upcoming Events

July-August 2010

Wednesday, July 7 (part 1 of 3)

Join Rabbi Benjamin David for Summer Adult Education at Temple Sinai of Roslyn from 11:00 am to 12:00 Noon. The Unsung Heroes of Jewish Tradition: Women in the Talmud and Midrash will explore the lives of Judaism's greatest female teachers and leaders. Be a part of an engaging series of classes devoted to our tradition's strongest and most noteworthy female characters. What can we learn from our matriarchs? How might their lives influence our own? Why have their stories gone untold for so long? All are welcome.

Wednesday, July 14 (part 2 of 3)

Thursday, July 15

Join the Temple Sinai of Roslyn Adult Activity Club for a "Getting to Know You" Barbeque at 6:30 pm. July is a great time to relax, have fun and mingle with friends while getting to meet and know other congregants. There will be a delicious barbeque and a wonderful evening of fun and games. Bring your friends and neighbors for a very pleasant get together. This program is free for paid up 2010/2011 Adult Activity Club members, so now is the perfect time to join the club (form is in with your July bill and in the July Newsletter). Non-members are $18, reservations a must. See you there.

Wednesday, July 21 (part 3 of 3)

Friday, August 13

Join Havurat HaSefer, the Temple Sinai Book Club, at 11:00 am as we discuss William & Rosalie: A Holocaust Testimony by William Schiff. Coauthor Craig Hanley spent months interviewing Holocaust survivors William Schiff (now 88) and his wife Rosalie (now 84), who told of the loss of families; their time spent in the Kraków, Poland, ghetto; and their journey through six Nazi slave and prison camps. In 1941, they had just married and were separated; later they were both sent to the Plaszow slave-labor camp outside of Kraków, where the notorious Nazi Amon Goeth was the commandant. William worked in the factories and Rosalie removed bodies from the camp. The richness of the Schiffs' memories and the sheer intensity of their experiences record for posterity the horrors of the Holocaust. All are welcome.
